

SAFEGUARDING

Most of the time at church we are like a big happy family. However even in very happy families people can have a bad day and even people we know and trust can upset us. We want to help everyone have good days all of the time. We try to make sure that people who have jobs in the church always behave well and in a way that is helpful to you. It is important that you tell us if something is upsetting you or if you are feeling worried about something that's happening or something somebody is doing. We have specially trained people who you can talk to and who you can ask for help. These people are good at safeguarding. This means they look after everyone's safety. Caring for people is a very important part of our Christian life.

The people who can help you are a parish priest or our safeguarding officer. You can contact the safeguarding officer: Revd David Rowett at davidrowett@aol.com or our priest-in-charge: The Revd Philip Stevens (01472 753602). If you wish to speak to someone outside our church you can contact the diocesan safeguarding team – their contact details are available here: <https://www.lincoln.anglican.org/safeguarding-overview>.

There is also information there about other places from where you can get help or advice.
